CIVILITY

If any member of the public uses obscenities or speaks in an abusive, insulting, and/or demeaning manner, the administrator or employee to whom the remarks are directed will calmly and politely request the speaker to communicate civilly. If corrective action is not taken by the abusing person, the district employee will seek to include an administrative representative in the meeting in an effort to restore civility. If an administrator is not available and/or a civil tone is not restored, the district employee will verbally notify the abusing person that the meeting, conference, or telephone conversation is terminated and, if the meeting or conference is on district premises, the abusing person will be asked to leave promptly.

When an individual is directed to leave under the above circumstances, the Superintendent/Principal, or his respective designee shall inform the person that he or she may be guilty of a misdemeanor in accordance with New Jersey law. If the person refuses to leave, the Superintendent/Principal, or his respective designee may notify law enforcement officials.

Safety and Security

If and when violence is directed toward a district employee, or theft of district property is threatened or attempted, employees shall promptly report the occurrence to the administration. Employees, through the administration, should report to law enforcement officials any attack assault, or threat made against them on district premises or at school district-sponsored activities.
